White wines

Fresh & light

- Whale Point, Sauvignon Blanc, SA
From the Western Cape, pale lemon in colour with a fresh nose of gooseberry, cut grass and lemon. £15.00
- San Antini, Pinot Grigio, It
Clean fresh citrus and crisp from Veneto, Northern Italy. Unoaked. £16.00

More aromatic - unoaked

- Picpoul Sel de Sable, Langue D'Oc, Fr £22.00
Salt and sandy lovely bright straw colour, citrus and mineral finish from the Picpoul grape, ideal with seafood or white meats. This is Languedoc's oldest grape variety.
- Sancerre, Domaine Merlin Cherrier, Loire, Fr £28.00
From the village of Sancerre comes a bone dry wine from an artisanal producer, flinty fresh structure and soft ripe gooseberry flavour, zesty finish
- Pinot Gris Roaring Meg, Bannockburn, Central Otago NZ £26.00
Made from the grey pinot in the dry area of NZ, more off dry in style with repr white stone fruit character. The southernmost wine region.

Medium bodied - fuller flavour

- Sauvignon Blanc, Turning Heads, NZ £19.00
From the southernmost wine region in the world from well drained soils that provide an excellent environment for pungent Cut-Grassy tropical sauvignonblanc - the calling card of Marlborough.
- Civitas Pecorino Bio Abruzzo IT £25.00
The name pecorino comes from the Italian for sheep which abound in this mountain area of mid Italy - wonderful floral ripe pear and creamy peach depth come from this incredible grape which is only grown in Italy. This wine is biodynamic.
- Crozes Hermitage Blanc La Matiniere Domaine Ferraton, Rhone, FR £28.00
The less usual white Crozes Hermitage isn made from 100% Marsanne grapes, grown on limestone of the Mercuriol sub district of the Rhone valley. This wine has a natural biodynamic apricot and sherbet character and a complex finish

Fuller bodied - robust - oaked

- Pimpala Road, Chardonnay, Geoff Merrill, McLaren Vale, Au £23.00
Cool breezes keep lovely freshness in Geoff's wines. Ageing in expensive French oak barrels give a roundness and vanilla character, resulting in a modern style Australian that is not dominated by oak.
- Saint Veran, Grande Bruyere, Luquet, Burgundy, Fr £30.00
A classic from the Macon area from a single (grande bruyere) vineyard, robust white Burgundy with toasted barrel flavours.
